EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Charles S. Fish (Reg. No. 35,870) on June 7, 2005.

3. The application has been amended as follows:

1. (Currently Amended) A method for traversing a boundary in a distributed processing environment, comprising:

storing connection protocol information in a connection properties table at a client network for each boundary [which may be traversed by the client network] for one or more server networks accessible by the client network;

receiving a request from a client object on the client network for access to a server object on a server network, the server network having a server network boundary;

locating an entry the connections property table corresponding to the requested server object; formatting a boundary traversal key from the connection protocol information associated with the located entry in the connection properties table, the boundary traversal key including information to traverse a boundary controlling access to the server network; and forwarding the request for access and the boundary traversal key to the boundary controlling access to the server network.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-27 are allowable over prior art of record based on the arguments presented in the appeal brief filed April 14, 2005.
5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
